

COLLEGE INSTRUCTORS ATTEND EDUCATIONAL PARLEYS THIS WEEK

Progressive, Conservative Societies To Meet At San Francisco And Fresno

San Jose State college will be represented at two educational conferences this week when proponents of radical changes in school curricula meet in San Francisco while educators advocating a more conservative approach to the situation gather in Fresno.

In the Bay city, the Progressive Education Association, a national education movement, sponsored in the main by educators from Columbia and Stanford Universities, meet to study "efforts to reconstruct education for modern living."

San Jose State instructors who will serve as panel members or leaders of discussion at the San Francisco parley in topics related to progressive education are Miss Estella Hoisholt, Dr. P. Victor Peterson, Miss Elsie Toles, and Dr. Elmer H. Staffebach.

FRESNO MEET
In Fresno the California Educators Research Association will make a study of various proposed curriculum changes and problems of the classroom.

Of education conferences in general, Dr. DeVoss, head of the Psychology department says, "No definite programs are adopted, but the conferences serve as a place to exchange ideas. They are a melting pot for progressive and conservative thought."

Genuine Full Moon Promised For Dance

Not satisfied with the securing of the highly popular Lee Hamlin orchestra, the Alpha Pi Omega fraternity has secured the cooperation of nature and promises a genuine full moon for their dance to be given at the Devonshire Country club Saturday night.

Featuring the singing of Pat Hamlin, blonde University of California co-ed and the piano playing of a new English star, the dance will be held from 9 to 11 o'clock.

The affair is sports and bids may be purchased from members or at the door.

BLUE WASHDAY TURNS ROSY MACHINE AGE SOFTENS HUSKY HOUSEKEEPING BOYS

By KEITH BIRLEM
Masculine sons of Sparta need not tell their children of back-breaking college days over a wash tub. Even the athletes, it seems, are growing soft in this machine age.

Reason? The varsity house has acquired a washing machine. No longer will talented "paws" be used for tossing the javelin, the foot ball, or the Greican platter toiling over a shirt or a pair of cords.

Earlier in the year plans were launched for an elevator for the Reed street residence but it was thumbed down. "Football muscles can be developed more greatly by running up the stairs," they alibied. Plans are now under way for the acquisition of a brand new

Six Contests Set For Spardi Gras

VOL. XXV SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 1937 Number 117

Peace Program Slated Tomorrow

First Spardi Gras Stickers Make Appearance

Scores of Spardi Gras stickers, red and white in color, were being distributed about the campus yesterday by the rally committee.

Members of the committee, having turned the editing of the Vinegar Jug over to Sigma Kappa Delta, honorary journalism fraternity, are now giving their full attention to publicizing the coming event.

The design for the stickers, which are to be seen today plastered on binders, wind shields, and elsewhere, was originated by Sal Merendino, art student and member of the rally committee who presented three stickers from which the official one was selected.

REVELRIES STARS TO ENTERTAIN JUNIORS

Many star entertainers of the Spartan Revelries are to appear at the junior class meeting tomorrow at 11 in Room 1 of the Home Economics building, according to Dick Lane, president of the class.

The entertainment, free to juniors but closed to all others, will be preceded by a short business meeting. Plans for the coming junior-senior "Before the War" dance, to be held on the Thursday before Senior week, will be discussed.

Suggestions about the egg-throwing concession obtained by the class for Spardi Gras day will also be taken up at this time, according to Tom Gifford, concession chairman.

Initial Police Club Plans Made

Initial plans for the forming of a police club exclusive of the already formed police fraternity were presented and discussed at the regular Tuesday police orientation held yesterday morning in the Science building.

Police Director William A. Wiltberger presented the outlined plans and then the group unanimously chose Bob Drexel to act as temporary chairman.

The purpose of the new club is to inform people on and off the campus just what the police school is accomplishing in the way of police work. It is also to acquaint new police students with the features of the school which they will have to work with.

Chairman Drexel appointed the following five students to act as a committee to draw up a constitution: Shelby Ryan, chairman; Bernard Broadus, Elbert Garcia, Everett Chamberlin, and Earl Rumetsch. The committee will work on the constitution this week and bring it up for decision at next week's meeting.

Another point stressed by Wiltberger is the fact that there will be no discrimination in the selecting of officers for the club. Freshmen as well as seniors will be eligible for all activities of the club.

Spring Quarter Group Picture Taking Will Begin Tomorrow Noon

Spring quarter group pictures of clubs and organizations for La Torre will be taken beginning tomorrow.

Starting at noon, the Spardi Gras committee pictures will be taken; at 12:40 the rally committee; at 12:50 the social affairs committee. Continuing Friday at noon the YWCA picture will be taken; at 12:10 the Kappa Phi; at 12:40 the 6-4 club; at 12:50 the commerce club.

All members of these organizations are urged to be present at the place to be designated in tomorrow's Daily.

No Senior Orientation

Senior orientation has been cancelled today because of the Peace demonstration program in the quad. The regular meeting will be held next Thursday morning.

EATING EVENTS TO VIE WITH MUSCLE FRACAS AT TRADITIONAL FETE

Portal, Sweeney To Act As Hair Judges For Spardi Gras Beard Competition

By WILBUR KORSMEIER

From an invitational pie-eating contest to the frosh-soph tug of war, a long list of contests will pervade the atmosphere on the approaching historic Spardi Gras day.

Under the leadership of Glenys Bodkin and "House of David" Don Walker, six competitive events will come to a climax on that carnival day, and already one of the most interesting, the whisker raising contest, is in its second week.

PORTAL, SWEENEY

That formidable campus team, Messrs. Portal and Sweeney, featured artists on many an all-college program, and hair judges supreme, have been engaged to act as sole judges for the beard contest. Roos Brothers, San Jose men's store, through its campus representative, Frank Hamilton, will award prizes for the longest and scraggiest beards. To the man wearing the heaviest and longest crop of whiskers, the store will award a pair of slacks, and to the winner of the most scraggly contest, a sport shirt will be awarded.

For the raffle prize, for which only persons who have remained unshaven for three week period will be eligible, will be awarded by the Spardi Gras heads and will be worth five dollars. Hamilton will present the other awards.

Registration Open For Redwood Lodge Meet

All students who wish to attend the Redwood Lodge conference of the College YW and YMCA groups should register in the YWCA office, according to Miss Agnes Rittman, chairman of the affair.

The party will leave Saturday morning at 8:00 to spend the week-end with inspirational leaders and enjoy good fellowship according to Miss Rittman.

Saturday afternoon will be spent in hiking, games, and other recreation. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

GLORIOUS BEVY OF STEPPERS BOASTS BOSS BAILEY LISTS LITHE LINE LADIES

In a moment of weakness last night, the erstwhile director of the Spartan Revelries, Jim Bailey, broke down and confessed that his greatest worry and greatest pride are one and the same thing—the chorus line for the show.

"Undoubtedly, we have the most glorious bevy of gals to ever grace the Dailey boards, each a dream in herself, together they make a soporific paradise." Bailey was not backward in expressing himself.

"Coral Kluge," he effervesced, "is only a sample of the line material. Dorothy Horrall too! What gals, what beauty!"

"My fellow type-pounder on the Daily staff, Jewel Spangler, is another choice bit of femininity who is destined to twinkle Spartan Revelries night."

"Time," Bailey stated, "does not permit me to go into hysterics about all my girls. Let it suffice to name them in order so that they might be known and recognized as the coming glowing stars as they are: Verda Brown, Margaret Sounders, Jackie Tuttle, Jeanne Bronson, Lucille Connolly, Vera Boatwright, Helene Flory, Beatrice Maranta, and Jesse-Mae Smith.

THE CANDID CAMPUS... OBSERVED

By THE EDITOR

THAT OLD REFRAIN...

For several days now, the cubby-hole office of the editor has been barricaded against all aspiring politicians and chairmen of a million and one things. We were afraid of hearing the old refrain, the usual song-and-dance routine of "how about a plug in the Spartan Daily?"

And so, we ducked under cover and got ready to shoot "NO" at the whites of their eyes yesterday, when Prexy Paul Becker sauntered through the swinging gates.

He didn't look like a song-and-dance man. He didn't act like one either. In fact, Paul looked quite serious. And before we had a chance to say, "What's ailing you, Paul?"

BECKER SAD

The MAN in the GREEN HAT, who usually hovers around, trying to figure out Wallace's puzzles, exclaimed:

"Gee, you look bad!" While at the same time we gave him (MAN in GREEN HAT, not Paul) a dirty look.

"What did you think of the organization get-together the other night?" queries the prexy.

It was, we pointed out, as lively as the quad on a lazy Sunday afternoon; and noisy as a fish sleeping in the briny deep. Prexy Paul agreed by shaking his head sadly. It was, indeed, a sad state of affairs. Certainly, at such a confab as the organization get-together, with the group heads joining in discussion, a more virile curiosity, at least, could be manifested.

Student policies, which the chairmen of the affair had expected to have their place in the sun that occasion, took a back seat. Perhaps even lively discussions are a thing of the past.

"Well, it's too bad," commented the Prexy, as he took leave. Even the MAN in the GREEN HAT couldn't console him.

FAREWELL TO ARMS...

Tomorrow, at 11 a.m., an attempt will be made to have an organized peace demonstration. San Jose State college, with a committee authorized by the student council, joins with universities and colleges throughout the United States on this platform:

"We recognize the increasing threat of war and accept our responsibility for creating and supporting an aggressive peace policy through a nation-wide demonstration of solidarity for world peace."

Surely a legitimate and sincere effort to stir interest on the problem of world-peace; and with a fine speaker in the person of Miss Rose Terlin, international secretary of the YWCA, student attention is deserved.

Whatever formulates during the Thursday demonstration, may there

RAZZ EDITION WANTS S'MORE CONTRIBUTIONS

What will YOUR grandchildren think?

In years to come when lil' "Willie" looks over daddy's old papers and comes across the 1937 issue of the San Jose State college RAZZ EDITION, he might ask, "Daddy, are you in the VINEGAR JUG?"

Contributions are rolling in... wise-cracks, jokes and faculty boners. Tuesday, April 27 at MIDNIGHT sharp is the deadline and sizzlers will be welcomed by Sigma Kappa Delta, honorary journalism frat, this year's sponsors of the Spardi Gras paper.

So if you are skillful, clever or even ambitious with the old literary bombardment, turn in your "tricky" ones and maybe we'll make 'em all look into the Vinegar Jug.

girl to girl and pausing to peer intently into each face.

So engrossed was I in what was transgressing before me that I failed to note that I was mingling with the group until the girl came up and peered into my face.

For a full moment she stared, then, taking a medal from a small box which she carried in her hand, she pinned it to my coat.

"But what is this?" I inquired. "That," she explained, "is the medal you receive for making the ugliest face, in this game of ugly face making."

Naturally I was indignant. "What do you mean?" I wasn't even competing!"

The best way of acquiring a haughty poise, I have found, is to ignore the collection box as it is stuck under your nose at church on Sundays.

I have always been interested in beard contests. I presume it is frustrated ambition that makes me so. It so happens, though, I have a stray hair or so on my chest, and I have been wandering if I could bring them up far enough to pass as chin whiskers if I had my face lifted.

FAMOUS FINALES: Wait'll I get home. I'll tell the wife a thing or two.

REVELRIES

There will be rehearsals tonight for the chorus. Look on the bulletin boards in the main hall for the time and place.

Jim Bailey.

WANTED... A Place In The Sun

Editor's Note: In view of the peace demonstration which will embrace all college participation tomorrow at 11:00 in the quad, the Spartan Daily presents an essay by Victor Carlock which won first prize in a contest sponsored by the Council for Peace last quarter.

"Peace is the interval between two wars, and a peace conference is a meeting among nations to decide how many new battleships are to be built during the next year. The cycle of life, especially in Europe, is war... treaty... peace... dissatisfaction... war. Following a war the seeds of the next war are sown in the form of the terms of the peace treaty."

WHAT USE SPEECHES?

These observations were made by a reporter at one of the Geneva conferences. In less than a nutshell they are the secrets of modern warfare. Of what use is it to talk of peace when such conditions are present?

It is all very well to say that education will show us the horror of war and its devastations. It is undoubtedly true that international munition makers are the sole ultimate gainers by war, that diseases take as many lives as bullets, that severe depressions, such as the one from which we are now emerging, are traceable in large part to war.

All of this is true, but what of it? None of these potent factors change the fundamental principles of nationalism that is undeniably dominant in our world at the present time.

THE "INS" HAVE IT

After repeated and pitiful attempts by the League of Nations and sundry peace conferences to bring lasting peace had failed again and again, it became evident that such indirect methods of preventing war would never be successful.

WHY?

The answer is simple. Merely the age old fight of the "outs against the ins". At the present time the United States, Great Britain, and France are generally considered the "ins" because of their abundance of natural resources and flourishing colonies.

On the other hand the "outs" are represented by Germany, Italy, and to a lesser extent, Japan. So it is that these latter countries receive most of the blame for their present-time warlike tendencies.

But the blame should rest equally on the so-called peaceful nations, best exemplified by France in recent years, who, having already satiated their spirit of conquest, exert themselves to the limit in diplomatic relations to subduing nations. Attempts to accomplish this subjugation serve not to maintain peace but merely to irritate old wounds.

"MEN OF THE HOUR"

Instead of saying that Hitler and Mussolini have captivated the peoples of Germany and Italy, we should instead recognize that it is the collective sentiments and national feelings in the minds of those people that make them "men of the hour".

Rome had such a period with Julius Caesar; France with Napoleon Bonaparte; England during the period of Queen Elizabeth; America at the time of George Washington. Who can say that any of these persons would have been great at any other period or in any other country if the people had not such a concerted national feeling?

A PLACE IN THE SUN

To secure permanent peace on solid foundations we must get at the root of the trouble; we must recognize that all countries have a right to their places in the sun, and that if they are denied attainment of it by peaceful means, they will surely resort to war. We must develop an international mind that, unlike the League of Nations, will not favor the nations that possess all they need over the countries who feel the need for expansion; above all we should attempt to lower the intense nationalistic spirit of oppressed nations by cooperating with them in diplomatic relations as we do in scientific and sporting activities.

In this way, and only in this way, will we ever eliminate war permanently. Whether the nations are ready to cooperate in this manner seems doubtful. If they do not, and for peace's sake let us hope they will, it will be in vain to talk of peace conferences, disarmament, or of peace education.

The Inside Column

— By BOB WORK —

The Marlais Sports Poll is being printed to stir up its usual line of comments... comments from the coaches, from the students, and especially from the athletes themselves.

Here for the benefit of all are

Sport Poll Rules

1. The primary purpose of the poll shall be to pick the winner of the Graham Peake Medal Athletic Award. This award which goes to the Poll's first place winner went to Burt Watson last year. This makes Watson ineligible for the present Poll. No winner shall be allowed to enter in any following year.

2. The secondary purpose of the poll shall be to choose a mythical "All Spartan Eleven" each member of which will receive a certificate in recognition of his ability.

3. The word "outstanding" in picking State's outstanding athletes shall be defined as all-around value to the school. A person who is outstanding in one sport and average in another should be rated above a person who is outstanding in just one.

4. A person who participates in three sports with average ability should not be rated over another who is nationally outstanding in one sport.

5. Degree of outstandingness must, of course, be judged by the voter. Each person will vote in order of preference for six persons whom he considers as the six leading athletes of the school.

6. The number of points shall be, starting with the first place position with ten points, nine for second, seven for third, five for fourth, three for fifth, and down to one point for the sixth place position.

7. The first returns will be received Monday, April 26. The first vote will be that of the Captains. Thereafter the order in which the votes will be tabulated is: Sport Managers, Sports Writers, Athletes, Student Body, Faculty members, and Coaches.

MORE DOPE ON THE POLL TOMORROW.

YEARLING NINE DEFEATS BEARS

San Jose State freshman baseball team, by scoring three runs in the second inning, defeated the University of California yearlings 3 to 0 yesterday afternoon on Hill field in Berkeley.

In the second frame Martella and Teresi singled to open the inning and Harvey Rose followed with a triple and was then scored by Manny Sanchez who singled.

Leroy Zimmerman held down the pitching box for the Spartan yearlings and limited the Bear cubs to four bingles and did not issue a walk, while his teammates gathered eight safeties off the offerings of the Bear hurler.

Butch Adams and Sanchez led the batting for the young Spartans with two hits out of four trips to the plate.

NOTICE

Will all men who have participated in boxing tournaments during the course of the year please see me or Dee Portal Thursday. There will be a picnic Sunday, April 25, and it will be necessary to let Dee know just who is coming.

Frosh Harriers Dump Alameda High 66 To 38

Vin Ruble, Ed Vasconcellos, and Don Presley turned in double victories yesterday as the Spartan frosh track team thoroughly walloped the Alameda high school cinder burners 66 to 38 on Spartan field.

Ruble captured the mile and 880, winning the four lap event in the fast time of 4:44.8 while the time for the half mile was 2:08.7.

Ed Vasconcellos took the broad jump and high jump, winning the former with a leap of 23 feet and one half inch and took the high jump with a leap of 5 feet 10 inches. Grant, also of the Spartan frosh, jumped 5 feet 10 inches, but Vasconcellos cleared the height on an earlier jump than Grant and according to the new ruling the Hawaiian won the event.

Presley won the shot put with a long distance heave of 54 feet 4 inches in the 12 pound ball and captured the 120 yard high hurdles in 16.3.

Outstanding for the visiting Alameda team was Otto who won the century and the 220-yard low hurdles with times of 10 flat and 24.6. The latter time is exceptionally good according to Coach "Tiny" Hartranft, and at that Otto just coasted in.

San Jose State racquetballers yesterday afternoon downed the University of Santa Clara Broncos, 6 to 3, on the San Jose Tennis club courts for their seventh straight conference victory and second win over the Mission city netters. Only one more meet remains in the conference schedule, that with the University of San Francisco next Tuesday, until the championship playoff May 1 with the same team in San Francisco.

Sparta's three top men took their singles tilts with Forrest Brown taking an easy win over Donald Wood, 6-0, 6-2. Ed Harper was lax in the first set and dropped it to his opponent, Norvin Lewis, 6-1, but came back in the second and third sets to win, 6-2, 6-2.

George "Chute" Rotholtz, man mountain of the squad, topped Bob Sullivan, 7-5, 6-4, in a bitterly fought contest. George Kifer fell before David Buckley, 6-1, 8-6, and Harold Kibby defeated Tony Turturici, 6-4, 6-2, in the fifth match. Frank "Fat" Olson finally dropped a close match to Bill Kaufman, 7-5, 4-6, 7-5.

In the first doubles Rotholtz and Harper defeated Dodd and Buckley, 6-4, 6-2, while Sullivan and Lewis were taken into camp by Sullivan and Lewis, 6-4, 6-4. The last match went to Kibby and Craves over Turturici, 6-4, 6-2.

This afternoon four Spartans, George Rotholtz, Forrest Brown, Ed Harper, and George Kifer, leave for the Ojai valley tournament to be held Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at Ojai in southern California.

Howard Withycombe Captain Of Two

OLAF'S MRS. ON RAMPAGE

Teams In Sports Poll Limelight

By WALT HECOX

We tossed the crimson tinted signs which read—"Down with the Marlais Sports Poll" and "Take no stock in the Marlais Sports Poll. It is unfair to deserving athletes"—into a nearby wastebasket and turned to Olaf who had just strolled dejectedly into the office.

"This smacks of your fine Italian hand," we said and tossed in a dirty look for good measure. Olaf met our gaze with a pair of blackened eyes. "No," he answered mournfully, "It was my wife! She wants to know why Handsome Howard Withycombe and 'All-American Boy' Keith Birlem are not getting more publicity."

"Well, they can't win the Sports Poll on their good looks." We gave him a questioning glance. A little of the Olaf of old appeared in his rebuke. "But they can win if they are outstanding athletes," he snarled.

"Are they?" Olaf returned to his natural self immediately. "Whose name," he roared, "have you seen in the banner lines more than Howard Withycombe's?" We had a quick answer for that. "A couple of fellows named Wempe and Kemper." Olaf snorted — "They're only frosh."

"Still," we replied, "they're good athletes." They both hold college swim records." Olaf ignored this. "Withycombe holds two that he breaks every other day. He is captain of both the water polo and swimming teams. He is one of THE outstanding athletes. A senior PAA champion, and defeated only once this year by the Southern California champion." We surrendered the point. "Okay. And Birlem?"

"A darn good football player and number one sprint man on the varsity swim team. An all around athlete and a good sport. . . . He's a real blocker, you know, and you ought to see him splash the water around. He's good, but his best year is yet to come." Again we conceded a point. "But the next time Mrs. Sports Fan has anything to say, send her to us." Olaf grinned. "I'm liable to do that little thing!"

DICKEY MAIN ENDS CAREER AT STATE; LEADS BATTERS

By JIM CRANFORD

Dickey Main, diminutive keystone man for the Spartans the last three seasons, ended his baseball career for San Jose State college by topping all his teammates in handling the stick with a 1937 season batting average of .349.

Main defeated shortstop Les Carpenter by one point in one of the closest batting duels that any Spartan baseball team has ever witnessed. Carpenter had a season average of .348. The grid captain led his teammates all season, but Main passed him in the final game by getting three bingles in four trips to the plate off the San Francisco State chucker.

SPORTS POLL CONTENDER

In winning the 1937 baseball honors, Main becomes a contender for the Marlais Sports Poll. The diminutive keystone man has been outstanding in soccer and played on the frosh basketball team during his freshman year. On the baseball team, Main is rated as the best keystone man that ever played for a San Jose club.

Other players that pushed Main and Carpenter in the batting averages were Captain Burt Watson and Walt McPherson. The latter had an average of .298, while Watson's was .296. Martinez and Riordan followed with averages of .288 and .286 respectively.

TEN WINS

Coach Gil Bishop's club this season won ten out of 16 games played, giving them an average of .625. In counting just college games played, their average totaled around the .700 mark, a high achievement in comparison with former San Jose teams.

Plans For Kappa Phi School Show Near Completion

'Lloyds Of London' Chosen As Feature Picture For Party

Arrangements are being completed for an all-school theater party to be held at the Hester theater on Thursday and Friday nights. Tickets are on sale for 30 cents in the Publications office or from Kappa Phi members and are valid either night.

Sponsored by the Kappa Phi club, a San Jose State college women's organization, the party will feature the picture "Lloyds of London". The picture has been highly endorsed by critics who have put it on the "must see" list of motion pictures. Starring Tyrone Power and Madeline Carroll, the picture is highly recommended by San Jose State students and professors who have seen the film.

Kay Scrivner is in charge of the Theater party which is being given to raise money to send delegates to the national Kappa Phi convention which is to be held in Denver, Colorado, during the summer.

Spears Sell Ice Cream Today At 10 In Quad

Feeling that the students are in need of some cool refreshments during these hot summer days, the Spartan Spears will sell ice cream today in the quad.

The sale will begin at 10 in the morning and continue into the afternoon. The proceeds will go to the bed fund for the Health Cottage.

LEE SHORTINO'S SUNBAKE SERENADERS PLAY FOR NOON-TIME DANCE TODAY

Offering a double bill of swinging to the music of Leo Shortino's "Sunbaked Syncopated Serenaders" and enjoying the usual noon-time sun bake, a noon dance will be held today from 12:30 until 1:00 o'clock.

According to Dick Lane, chairman for the dance, all the latest dance tunes will be featured and a large group of "Astaire-minded" students are expected to take advantage of the dance.

Competitive Events To Prevail EX-BEARD CHAMP GUEST At Annual Spardi Gras Festival

(Continued from Page One) the beard-raising contest will be the appearance of a former champ. It is rumored that he too is sprouting a handsome set of whiskers, and the former winner will be a guest artist on the program.

One of the featured contests will be the banana eating affair. Tony Nasimento, who stowed away the most bananas in the shortest time during last year's Spardi Gras celebration, has already stated that he is in the best of shape for the coming contest, and that he will challenge all comers. Six men and six women will enter the contest at first, as separate sections. The winners of these two frays will then battle for the grand prize.

PIE EATING DE LUXE

An outstanding contest will be the pie-eating fracas. Six former champs have been invited to enter this event, which is not open to outsiders. A novel idea will make this affair one of the most exciting of the afternoon.

Big Shots Are "Hicks" Shiny Tin Gods Reveal Themselves As Even You And I; Feet Of Clay Merely Country Clod

By VIVIAN ERICKSON
What happens to small town boys when they go to the big city (such as San Jose), besides getting run over by street cars?

According to statistics compiled by a Spartan Daily reporter, small towners who attend San Jose State college, for some reason, have a better chance of becoming important campus figures than the boys from the big city.

Heading the list is student body president Paul Becker, who doesn't even come from a town but from a summer resort. Yosemite. Vice-president Alice Wilson also claims a summer resort for a home town.

EVEN THE "DAILY"

The "Spartan Daily" contributes prestige to the "hick" towners by having as Editor Charles Leong of Watsonville, Copy Editor Jeanne Moorehead also of Watsonville, Managing Editor Jim Marlais of Campbell, Feature Editor Ora Lindquist of Los Gatos.

Presidents of organizations who name small burghs as home towns are: Norman Dalkey, president of Pegasus, of Saratoga; Myra Eaton, president of San Jose Players of Sunnyvale; Barbara Harkey, president of A.W.S. of Gridley; Leona Solon, president of Spartan Spears, of Niles; Jack Gruber, president of Spartan Knights, of Eagle Rock; Luke Argilla, president of P. E. Majors, of Turlock; Mickey Slingluff, president of Artizans, of Palo Alto; Hamilton H. SOCIAL SERVICE HEAD SPEAKS TO CLASS

Predicting that state and federal employment bureaus would become a vital part in every community, and would offer a future field of work for social service people, Miss Rena Crosby of the State and Federal Employment Service spoke yesterday morning before Mr. James Woodruff's Social Problems class.

She explained that such an employment bureau would do away with many of the evils which are now predominant in the field of employment service.

Jobs, she explained, would be found in every line of work for all classes, including those in professional fields. The agency would act as a go-between for both the employer and the prospective job hunter, she said.

SKD LOOKING FOR BOTTLES FOR CONCESSION

Bottles of all shapes and forms are being sought by members of Sigma Kappa Delta, honorary journalism fraternity. Even an Effie Mae jug will be appreciated by the aspiring journalists.

The reason for the bottle drive is to furnish targets for the bottle smashing concession to be sponsored by the group. All unwanted bottles should be brought into the Publications' office.

SKD prexy Charles Leong has announced that there will be a meeting today at 12:30 in the Publications' office and that all members, active and inactive, should be present, otherwise the results will be dire.

Instructors Attend Conferences

(Continued from Page One) is to make the pupil the center of attention. "The old teacher taught arithmetic, while the new teacher teaches the child. Their aim is to recreate society through the education of its children to get a better social order," Dr. DeVoss explained.

Dr. Raymond Mosher interpreting the progressive movement says their belief is that "Schools should be the motive power in the reorganization of social structure."

Curriculum changes advocated by the progressives are the discarding of history as a subject and the use of it only as a background for other subjects, and, silent reading instead of oral with stress on contents rather than words.

SPEAKERS

A partial list of speakers released by Dean Grayson N. Kefauver of Stanford University, general chairman of the party, includes Dr. D. A. Richards of Cambridge University, England; Dr. Lois H. Meek, Columbia University, and Dr. Ralph Tyler of Ohio State University.
